

THE CITY WALK

An editorial shaped by texture and terrain.
In the city, winter style becomes sharper, stronger, more defined.

A BALANCE THAT DEFINES MODERN WINTER DRESSING.

Nothing feels accidental.
Every layer has a role. Every piece contributes.
The result is a look that feels composed, without trying too hard.

Walking, stopping, turning — every piece responds. Jackets hold their form, coats move with the wind, and boots carry the weight of the day.

Cold air moves through the streets as the city slows into its winter rhythm.

WINTER RESHAPES THE OUTLINE.
